SARK. The Coupee
Oilette

LL5930

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

SARK.—The Coupée. The Coupée marks the spot where the island is cut in two. It is a wild road which joins together Great Sark and Little Sark, but can be safely crossed in a carriage. The Coupée is 290 feet above high-water mark, and its length from bank to bank is 280 feet.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

LL5930
LTPA 12.9

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" "ALDERNEY & SARK." [Regd.] Postcard 7320.
From "THE CHANNEL ISLANDS," illustrated by Henry B. Wimbush (A. & C. Black).